PLAYING THE GAME

GETTING STARTED

Pitch Blackjack is a popular variation of blackjack where the players get to touch the cards. It will be played with two decks of standard 52 cards. This game will either be dealt by hand or dealt from a shoe with the player receiving their two cards face down.

The game is also played with an optional TriLux side bet. If the first two (2) cards the player receives, and the dealer's up card makes a qualifying hand 3 Card Poker hand, it Wins!

Optional TriLux bet pays 9 to 1 for the hands below:

Straight Flush

Three-of-a-Kind

Straight

Flush

Blackjack Pitch has some variations of rules that are different from regular blackjack. They are as follows:

- Players may only play one hand.
- Players may only double down on a two card total of ten or eleven and must lay their two cards face up on the table in order to do so.
- Players may only split pairs once and must lay their cards face up on the table in order to do so.
- Players are not allowed to double down after splitting.
- Aces may not be split.
- No mid-shoe/mid-deck entry is allowed.
